Copyright Policy Update

Effective Date: November 1, 2020

Tango Systems, LLC ("the Company") respects the intellectual property rights of others and expects its users to do the same. The Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") provides recourse to copyright owners who believe that their rights under the United States Copyright Act have been infringed by acts of third parties over the Internet.

Pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. § 512), the Company has implemented procedures for receiving written notification of claimed copyright infringement. The Company has also designated an agent to receive notices of claimed copyright infringement. If you believe in good faith that your copyright has been infringed, you may submit a notice. 3. A description specifying the location of the material that you claim is infringing
4. Your telephone number and e-mail address
5. A statement by you that you have a good faith belief that the disputed use is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and
6. A statement by you, made under penalty of perjury, that the information in your notice is accurate and that you are the copyright owner or authorized to act on the copyright owner's behalf.

You may submit this information to the Company's Designated Agent:

If your user content or other information has been affected by reason of a notification under the DMCA, you may make a counter-notification pursuant to sections 512(g)(2) and (3) of the DMCA. You will be liable for damages (including costs and attorneys' fees) if you materially misrepresent that your User Content or your activity is not infringing the copyrights of others.
